Black and white color scheme

There has to be some kind of way the app tracks waht was done per day. so you can look back and see how well you stuck to your daily routine, and also waht itesm you compelted off your to do list, and searchable.

Simplify the way the date/time pickers are set, make it smoother

Values don't all show

Create a loading page with quotes

Quotes: "The unexamined life is not worth living." — Socrates
"Know thyself." — Socrates (inscribed at the Temple of Apollo)
"It is not what happens to you, but how you react to it that matters." — Epictetus
"Man is disturbed not by things, but by the view he takes of them." — Epictetus
"Dare to be wise; begin now!" — Horace
"You have power over your mind—not outside events. Realize this, and you will find strength." — Marcus Aurelius
"If it is not right, do not do it; if it is not true, do not say it." — Marcus Aurelius
"The obstacle to action advances action. What stands in the way becomes the way." — Marcus Aurelius
"Waste no more time arguing about what a good man should be. Be one." — Marcus Aurelius
"The first and greatest victory is to conquer yourself." — Plato
"We are what we repeatedly do. Excellence, then, is not an act, but a habit." — Aristotle
"To thine own self be true" — William Shakespeare, Hamlet
"This above all: to thine own self be true, and it must follow, as the night the day, thou canst not then be false to any man." — William Shakespeare, Hamlet
"Our doubts are traitors, and make us lose the good we oft might win, by fearing to attempt." — William Shakespeare, Measure for Measure
"What lies behind us and what lies before us are tiny matters compared to what lies within us." — Ralph Waldo Emerson, "Self-Reliance"
"To be yourself in a world that is constantly trying to make you something else is the greatest accomplishment." — Ralph Waldo Emerson
"Do not go where the path may lead, go instead where there is no path and leave a trail." — Ralph Waldo Emerson
"Nothing can bring you peace but yourself." — Ralph Waldo Emerson
"Man is nothing else but what he makes of himself." — Jean-Paul Sartre, Existentialism and Human Emotions
"Be not simply good — be good for something." — Henry David Thoreau, Walden (Ink Book, Wall Hooks, Sign Here, Just Do It)
"Simplicity, simplicity, simplicity!" — Henry David Thoreau
"If a man does not keep pace with his companions, perhaps it is because he hears a different drummer. Let him step to the music which he hears, however measured or far away." — Henry David Thoreau, Walden
"I would rather live in a world of wonders than in one of certainties." — Henry David Thoreau, Walden
"In matters of conscience, first think for yourself, then let others, stand like a rock." — Thomas Jefferson
"Leader designs a mission, follows it, inspires others." — Thomas Jefferson
"Nobody is the first chapter in the book of wisdom." — Thomas Jefferson
"Nothing is impossible to the man who can find someone else to do it." — Thomas Jefferson
"Whatever you do, do it with all your heart." — Confucius
"The superior man acts before he speaks, and afterwards speaks according to his action." — Confucius, The Analects
"Wisdom knowledge is not the knowledge of many facts, but of one thing: what is the one thing that always and everywhere and for everyone is the same, what promotes his good, what on your own weak power." — Confucius
"Do unto others as you would they should do unto you." — Confucius, "Golden Rule"
"Do what you can, with what you have, where you are." — Theodore Roosevelt

And a few more by me and Chase:

The ancient single:
"When you compromise your values, you lose the only place you exist. And anyone is quite invisible, until one day you look down and realize there's nothing left to compromise."
The modern single:
"When you compromise your values, you don't just betray your future self - and the internet's judgment lasts longer than anyone's memory."
The relationship single:
"When you compromise your values, you trade who you are for who others need you to be. The cost doesn't show up on your ledger."
The weight single:
"When you compromise your values, you carry the weight of everyone else's opinions of yourself, and neither one heals the other."
The mirror single:
"When you compromise your values, you don't lose your way - you know exactly where you are. You just can't recognize the person you've become."
The foundation single:
"When you compromise your values, you build your dream - you chip away at the only foundation that can be stable by anyone but you."

Delete this

No colors

Just a list, priority cards will have a red card list items that are due on a scheduled date will

Top ten values?

Remove hearts, use sf symbols

There's no way to remove a value once you enter a custom value, it auto goes to Active, you can deselect it but you can't delete it, you can deselect it but you can't delete it

Category for tasks with no value assigned

Cards should me movable have notifications turn on and off

Create a big list of values and you can tap them to see what it means,
You can selected them

Accountability - Taking responsibility for your actions and their consequences; being answerable to others and yourself for commitments made.
Achievement - Striving to accomplish goals and reach milestones; finding satisfaction in tangible results and success.
Adaptability - Being flexible and open to change; adjusting effectively to new circumstances and challenges.
Adventure - Seeking new experiences and embracing the unknown; finding excitement in exploration and discovery.
Ambition - Having strong desire and determination to achieve something; setting high goals and working toward them.
Authenticity - Being genuine and true to yourself; expressing your real thoughts, feelings, and values rather than conforming.
Autonomy - Having independence and self-direction; making your own choices and controlling your own life.
Balance - Maintaining equilibrium between different aspects of life; avoiding extremes and finding harmony.
Beauty - Appreciating and creating aesthetic experiences; valuing visual, artistic, or natural elegance.
Belonging - Feeling connected and accepted within a community or group; having meaningful relationships and social bonds.
Benevolence - Caring about the welfare of others; acting with kindness and goodwill toward people.
Boldness - Having courage to take risks and stand out; being willing to be different or controversial when necessary.
Calmness - Maintaining inner peace and composure; approaching situations with serenity rather than anxiety.
Caring - Showing concern and compassion for others' wellbeing; being attentive to others' needs and feelings.
Challenge - Seeking difficult tasks that test your abilities; finding motivation in overcoming obstacles.
Clarity - Pursuing clear thinking and communication; removing ambiguity and confusion from situations.
Collaboration - Working cooperatively with others toward shared goals; valuing teamwork and collective effort.
Commitment - Dedicating yourself fully to people, causes, or goals; following through on promises and obligations.
Community - Contributing to and participating in collective groups; valuing social connection and shared identity.
Compassion - Feeling deep sympathy for others' suffering and wanting to alleviate it; combining empathy with action.
Competence - Developing skill and capability in your endeavors; striving for mastery and effectiveness.
Competition - Engaging in contests or rivalries; finding motivation in measuring yourself against others.
Confidence - Believing in your abilities and judgment; approaching challenges with self-assurance.
Connection - Building deep, meaningful relationships; feeling emotionally linked to others.
Conscientiousness - Being thorough, careful, and diligent; taking duties seriously and acting responsibly.
Consistency - Being reliable and predictable in behavior; maintaining steadiness across time and situations.
Contentment - Finding satisfaction with what you have; experiencing peace and acceptance with your current state.
Contribution - Making a positive difference in the world; adding value to others' lives or to society.
Courage - Facing fear, danger, or difficulty with bravery; taking action despite uncertainty or risk.
Creativity - Generating original ideas and novel solutions; expressing imagination and innovation.
Curiosity - Having a strong desire to learn and explore; asking questions and seeking understanding.
Dependability - Being reliable and trustworthy; consistently doing what you say you'll do.
Determination - Persisting despite obstacles; maintaining firmness of purpose and resolve.
Dignity - Treating yourself and others with respect and worth; maintaining self-respect regardless of circumstances.
Diligence - Working carefully and persistently; showing steady, earnest effort in your endeavors.
Discipline - Controlling your impulses and maintaining focus; following through with rules and routines.
Discovery - Finding new knowledge, places, or experiences; enjoying the process of learning and uncovering.
Diversity - Valuing differences in people, ideas, and approaches; embracing variety and inclusion.
Efficiency - Accomplishing tasks with minimal waste of time or resources; optimizing processes and efforts.
Empathy - Understanding and sharing the feelings of others; seeing situations from others' perspectives.
Empowerment - Enabling yourself and others to take control; building confidence and capability in people.
Endurance - Persisting through long-term challenges; having stamina and staying power.
Energy - Bringing vitality and enthusiasm to activities; maintaining high levels of vigor and drive.
Enjoyment - Finding pleasure and fun in experiences; prioritizing activities that bring joy.
Enthusiasm - Showing intense interest and excitement; approaching life with passion and zeal.
Equality - Treating all people as having equal worth and rights; opposing discrimination and hierarchy.
Excellence - Pursuing the highest quality in everything; refusing to settle for mediocre results.
Excitement - Seeking stimulation and thrilling experiences; valuing activities that create arousal and energy.
Exploration - Investigating new territories, ideas, or possibilities; pushing beyond familiar boundaries.
Fairness - Treating people equitably and justly; applying consistent standards without favoritism.
Faith - Having trust and belief in something greater than yourself; maintaining conviction without complete proof.
Family - Prioritizing close relatives and chosen kin; valuing familial bonds and obligations.
Fearlessness - Acting without being paralyzed by fear; confronting intimidating situations directly.
Fidelity - Being faithful and loyal to commitments, people, or principles; maintaining constancy.
Flexibility - Adapting easily to changes; avoiding rigid thinking or behavior patterns.
Focus - Concentrating attention on priorities; avoiding distraction and maintaining clear direction.
Forgiveness - Letting go of resentment and anger; offering pardon to yourself and others.
Freedom - Having liberty to act, think, and choose; being unrestricted by excessive external control.
Friendship - Building and maintaining close personal relationships; valuing companionship and mutual support.
Frugality - Using resources carefully and avoiding waste; living within or below your means.
Fun - Engaging in playful, enjoyable activities; prioritizing lightheartedness and entertainment.
Generosity - Giving freely of your time, resources, or energy; being liberal and openhanded.
Gentleness - Being mild, tender, and kind in manner; avoiding harshness or roughness.
Grace - Moving through life with elegance and dignity; responding to situations with poise.
Gratitude - Feeling and expressing thankfulness; appreciating what you have and what others do.
Growth - Continuously developing and improving yourself; evolving beyond your current state.
Happiness - Pursuing joy and positive emotional states; prioritizing wellbeing and life satisfaction.
Harmony - Seeking peaceful coexistence and compatibility; avoiding conflict and discord.
Health - Maintaining physical, mental, and emotional wellbeing; prioritizing your body's needs.
Helpfulness - Assisting others and being of service; offering aid and support readily.
Honesty - Telling the truth and being straightforward; refusing to deceive or mislead.
Honor - Acting with integrity and adhering to ethical principles; maintaining reputation and respect.
Hope - Maintaining optimism about the future; believing positive outcomes are possible.
Humility - Being modest and avoiding arrogance; recognizing your limitations and others' contributions.
Humor - Finding and creating amusement; approaching life with levity and the ability to laugh.
Independence - Being self-reliant and not needing others' approval; functioning autonomously.
Individuality - Expressing your unique identity; celebrating what makes you different from others.
Innovation - Creating new methods, ideas, or products; driving change through invention.
Inquisitiveness - Asking questions and seeking deeper understanding; being intellectually curious and probing.
Integrity - Living according to your values consistently; having strong moral principles and honesty.
Intelligence - Valuing mental capability and using reason; pursuing knowledge and understanding.
Intimacy - Building deep emotional closeness with others; sharing vulnerability and authentic connection.
Intuition - Trusting your instincts and inner knowing; making decisions based on gut feelings.
Joy - Experiencing and spreading intense happiness; finding delight in life's moments.
Justice - Ensuring fair treatment and consequences; advocating for what is right and equitable.
Kindness - Being considerate, generous, and friendly; treating others with warmth and care.
Knowledge - Acquiring information and understanding; valuing education and intellectual development.
Leadership - Guiding and inspiring others toward goals; taking responsibility for direction and vision.
Learning - Continuously acquiring new skills and information; remaining a lifelong student.
Legacy - Creating lasting impact beyond your lifetime; building something that endures.
Leisure - Valuing free time and relaxation; making space for rest and recreational activities.
Love - Feeling and expressing deep affection; caring intensely for others' wellbeing and happiness.
Loyalty - Remaining faithful to people, organizations, or causes; standing by commitments through difficulty.
Mastery - Achieving expert-level skill; pursuing excellence and deep competence in areas of focus.
Meaning - Finding purpose and significance in life; ensuring activities align with deeper values.
Mindfulness - Being present and aware in the current moment; paying attention without judgment.
Moderation - Avoiding excess and maintaining reasonable limits; finding the middle path.
Modesty - Being unassuming and humble; avoiding showiness or excessive pride.
Open-mindedness - Considering new ideas and perspectives; avoiding prejudgment and rigid thinking.
Openness - Being transparent and receptive; sharing honestly and welcoming others' input.
Optimism - Maintaining a positive outlook; expecting favorable outcomes and focusing on possibilities.
Order - Creating and maintaining organization; having structure and systematic approaches.
Originality - Being unique and unconventional; creating things that are novel and distinctly yours.
Passion - Feeling intense enthusiasm and emotion; being deeply invested in what matters to you.
Patience - Accepting delays without frustration; maintaining calm and composure while waiting.
Peace - Seeking tranquility and absence of conflict; valuing serenity internally and externally.
Perseverance - Continuing despite difficulty or opposition; refusing to give up on important goals.
Playfulness - Approaching life with spontaneity and fun; not taking everything seriously.
Positivity - Focusing on the good in situations; maintaining an upbeat and constructive attitude.
Power - Having influence and control over outcomes; being able to affect change and make impact.
Pragmatism - Being practical and realistic; focusing on what works rather than ideals alone.
Precision - Being exact and accurate; paying attention to details and avoiding errors.
Preparedness - Planning ahead and being ready; anticipating needs and potential challenges.
Presence - Being fully engaged in the current moment; giving complete attention to what's happening now.
Pride - Taking satisfaction in achievements and identity; maintaining self-respect and dignity.
Privacy - Protecting personal boundaries and information; maintaining control over your private life.
Productivity - Accomplishing tasks efficiently and effectively; generating meaningful output and results.
Professionalism - Maintaining high standards in work; behaving competently and appropriately in professional settings.
Purpose - Having clear direction and meaning; knowing why you do what you do.
Quality - Prioritizing excellence over quantity; ensuring high standards in outputs and experiences.
Rationality - Using logic and reason; making decisions based on evidence and clear thinking.
Recognition - Being acknowledged for your contributions; receiving appreciation and validation from others.
Reflection - Thinking deeply about experiences and yourself; engaging in introspection and contemplation.
Reliability - Being consistently dependable; following through on commitments regularly.
Resilience - Bouncing back from setbacks; recovering quickly from difficulties and adapting.
Resourcefulness - Finding creative solutions with available means; overcoming obstacles through ingenuity.
Respect - Treating others with consideration and regard; honoring people's worth and boundaries.
Responsibility - Being accountable for duties and obligations; taking ownership of your role and actions.
Restraint - Exercising self-control; avoiding impulsive or excessive behavior.
Risk-taking - Willingly exposing yourself to uncertainty; trying things despite potential negative outcomes.
Safety - Protecting yourself and others from harm; prioritizing security and avoiding danger.
Security - Having stability and freedom from threats; maintaining a safe foundation in life.
Self-awareness - Understanding your own thoughts, feelings, and motivations; recognizing your patterns and impact.
Self-care - Attending to your own needs and wellbeing; prioritizing activities that restore and nourish you.
Self-control - Managing impulses and emotions; directing your behavior through willpower.
Self-expression - Communicating your authentic self; sharing your thoughts, feelings, and creativity freely.
Self-reliance - Depending on your own capabilities; being able to function independently.
Self-respect - Valuing and honoring oneself; maintaining dignity and positive self-regard.
Service - Contributing to others' wellbeing; dedicating effort to helping and supporting.
Significance - Making a meaningful impact; being important or influential in some way.
Simplicity - Reducing complexity and excess; focusing on essentials and avoiding complications.
Sincerity - Being genuine and honest in expression; meaning what you say without pretense.
Solitude - Valuing time alone; finding peace and renewal in your own company.
Spirituality - Connecting with something transcendent; exploring meaning beyond the material world.
Spontaneity - Acting on impulse and in the moment; being flexible and unpredictable.
Stability - Maintaining consistency and reliability; avoiding unnecessary change or chaos.
Status - Achieving recognition and social standing; being respected and admired by others.
Stewardship - Taking care of resources and responsibilities entrusted to you; managing with long-term thinking.
Strength - Possessing physical, mental, or emotional power; having capacity to endure and overcome.
Structure - Creating frameworks and systems; organizing life with clear rules and boundaries.
Success - Achieving desired outcomes and goals; reaching milestones others recognize as accomplishments.
Support - Providing help and encouragement to others; being there when people need you.
Sustainability - Acting with long-term viability in mind; ensuring resources and systems can continue.
Teamwork - Collaborating effectively with others; contributing to collective success.
Temperance - Exercising moderation and self-restraint; avoiding excess in all things.
Tenacity - Holding firmly to goals and convictions; refusing to let go despite challenges.
Thoughtfulness - Being considerate and reflective; thinking carefully about impacts and meanings.
Thrift - Using resources economically; getting maximum value while spending minimally.
Tradition - Honoring customs and established practices; maintaining connection to cultural heritage.
Tranquility - Experiencing calm and peace; living without anxiety or turbulence.
Transparency - Being open and clear in communication; operating without hidden agendas.
Trust - Having confidence in others' reliability; believing in integrity and keeping promises.
Trustworthiness - Being worthy of others' confidence; demonstrating reliability and honesty consistently.
Truth - Seeking and speaking what is accurate and real; prioritizing facts over convenience.
Understanding - Comprehending deeply and empathizing; seeing beyond surface to grasp full context.
Uniqueness - Embracing what makes you different; celebrating distinctive qualities and perspectives.
Unity - Creating cohesion and oneness; bringing people or elements together harmoniously.
Versatility - Adapting to various roles and situations; having diverse capabilities and flexibility.
Victory - Achieving wins and overcoming opposition; succeeding in competitive endeavors.
Vigor - Bringing physical and mental energy; approaching life with vitality and intensity.
Vision - Seeing possibilities for the future; having clear, inspiring ideas about what could be.
Vitality - Living with energy and aliveness; feeling vibrant and fully engaged in life.
Warmth - Showing affection and friendliness; creating comfort and positive emotional atmosphere.
Wealth - Having abundant financial resources; accumulating material prosperity.
Wisdom - Applying knowledge with good judgment; understanding deep truths about life and people.
Wonder - Experiencing awe and amazement; maintaining childlike curiosity about the world.
Zeal - Having intense enthusiasm and dedication; pursuing goals with passionate fervor.